VETERINARY ASSISTANT: SPORTS MEDICINE & REHABILITATION

Cornell University Veterinary Specialists (CUVS) in Stamford, CT, is seeking a veterinary assistant to work with our Sports Medicine & Rehabilitation (SMR) team. Our board-certified SMR specialist is one of only approximately 50 such specialists in the country, so this is a unique opportunity to provide care at the highest level.

The SMR at CUVS works collaboratively with other specialty services within CUVS, as well as accepting referrals from other specialty and general practices. Each patient receives an individualized treatment plan utilizing a combination of manual therapy, therapeutic exercises, massage, thermotherapy, cryotherapy, neurofunctional acupuncture, weight control, and/or programs for core strengthening and stability. Modalities include: underwater treadmill, Class IV laser, electrical stimulation (NMES, E-STIM), orthosis (brace) management, prosthesis management and regenerative medicine (stem cells/PRP). The veterinary assistant plays a vital role in the service; responsibilities include:

- Performing, and assisting with, patient treatments.
- Supporting and assisting the specialist and technician in patient procedures and in consultations.
- Professional client interactions and coordination with the CUVS client service team.
- Inventory management.
- Maintenance of the service's examination rooms and treatment area.

CUVS is a mission-driven specialty and emergency center, providing exceptional and innovative medicine within a patient-centered and service-oriented model. As a subsidiary of Cornell University, we combine the best aspects of academic practice with the best aspects of private practice to create a unique hospital model.

Our specialty services include Emergency-Critical Care, Internal Medicine, Surgery, Oncology, Ophthalmology, Dentistry & Oral Surgery, Dermatology, Cardiology, Sports Medicine & Rehabilitation, as well as advanced Interventional Radiology-Endoscopy. We have a truly exceptional and unique culture that makes for an unparalleled work environment. This culture prioritizes and values the nursing staff and their essential role in the clinical team. Our doctors, technicians and assistants are a cohesive team of professionals who strongly believe in collaboration, communication, respect, and lifelong learning.

We are dedicated to helping our team members develop to their fullest potential. Why choose a hospital that offers you a job, when you can choose a hospital that offers you a career?

Located in Harbor Point, Stamford, the area offers a rich cultural experience and myriad water and other outdoor activities. We are 45 minutes from Manhattan and minutes from commuter trains and the Interstate. We are an easy commute from Westchester, Putnam, Orange, Rockland and Dutchess counties.

CUVS offers an outstanding compensation package, including, medical, dental, pet, disability and life insurance, matching 401k, and in-house educational opportunities. CUVS is a great place to utilize and grow your skills in a challenging, rewarding, fun, and respectful environment. Individuals with a passion for their work, a strong sense of collaboration and teamwork, and an appreciation for diversity are strongly encouraged to apply.
